Good Morning Julianne,

I wanted to give you an update on what is happening with our legislation. It ended up that the legislators were not in session very many days after the election so our legislation will go in with the budget bill when they come back after the new year....I don't anticipate that it will be completed much before the July 1st fiscal year when the new budget is due. They still do not anticipate any issues and the language remains identical.

Have a HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Let me know if you have any questions.
